

ECCLESIA

DISCIPLESHIP & COMMISSIONING

Motto:

Rooted in Scripture. Formed in Christ. Sent to the Nations.

HANDBOOK

OF SPIRITUAL FORMATION, THEOLOGY & MINISTERIAL COMMISSIONING

Welcome Statement

Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC) is more than a school; it is a divine forge where hearts are formed, minds renewed, and witnesses raised for Christ.

We are committed to training, forming, and sending a generation deeply rooted in Scripture, governed by the Spirit, and faithful to the revelation of Jesus Christ.

Here, disciples are not merely informed; they are transformed.

Here, doctrine is not separated from devotion, and theology is not divorced from spiritual formation.

Here, the voice of the Spirit becomes the compass for life, ministry, and mission.

Whether as a participant in training, a student completing theological formation, or one being commissioned into ministry within Awakening Ecclesia Global or the wider Body of Christ, EDC exists to prepare vessels fit for the Master's use.

Welcome to the making of witnesses.

Ecclesia | DC

Vision Statement

To raise a generation of spiritually formed, Scripture-rooted, and Christ-governed believers who embody the life of Christ, uphold sound doctrine, walk in holiness and discernment, and faithfully advance the Kingdom of God across nations and generations.

Mission Statement

Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC) exists to train, form, and commission believers through deep biblical teaching, spiritual growth, doctrinal grounding, prayer, consecration, and apostolic discipleship, with the goal of producing mature disciples and ministers who are inwardly governed by Christ, faithful in character, sound in doctrine, discerning in spirit, and effective in Kingdom witness and ministry.

Founder's / President's Welcome Address

Beloved in Christ,

Welcome to Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC).

What you hold in your hands is not merely an academic handbook, nor the outline of a theological program. It is the expression of a burden a burden born from prayer, observation,

Scripture, spiritual dealings, and the growing conviction that many believers in this generation are informed but not formed, active but not rooted, visible but not governed inwardly by Christ.

EDC exists because of a deep cry within my spirit concerning the condition of modern Christianity. Over the years, we have seen increasing emphasis on platform without process, ministry without formation, visibility without brokenness, and spiritual activity without doctrinal depth. Many desire influence, yet few desire inward government. Many seek impartation, yet avoid consecration. We have seen crowds that admire Christianity, but far fewer disciples that truly embody Christ.

It was out of this burden that the discipleship journey began around the year 2022. What started as a burden for spiritual growth gradually developed into a deeper apostolic responsibility. By 2025, the work matured into what became known as Discipleship & Commissioning: not merely to teach believers, but to help form, examine, prepare, and send them.

The vision was never simply to create another Bible school or theological institution. The vision was to establish a spiritual training ground where Scripture, doctrine, prayer, holiness, brokenness, discernment, and inner transformation would again become central to the making of believers and ministers.

At EDC, we believe that true ministry must flow from a formed life. We believe that giftedness without character is dangerous, theology without devotion is incomplete, and spiritual experiences without discernment can mislead. We believe Christ must not only be preached outwardly but formed inwardly.

This is why our emphasis goes beyond information transfer. We are deeply concerned with:

- the condition of the inner man,
- the formation of Christlike character,
- the government of the flesh,
- sound doctrine,
- spiritual stability,
- reverence for Scripture,
- and the raising of witnesses who can endure faithfully in truth.

Our desire is to see believers who are rooted in God, established in doctrine, mature in discernment, disciplined in devotion, and faithful in witness. We are not merely interested in producing preachers, but disciples; not merely ministers, but vessels; not merely voices, but witnesses.

By the grace of God, the training presently consists of two sets: C'1 and C'2, representing the ongoing work of growth and commissioning that God has begun among us. Yet we believe this is only the beginning of what the Lord intends to build for His purpose in this generation.

The crisis of this age will not be solved merely by louder preaching or larger gatherings. It will require believers who are inwardly governed, spiritually discerning, doctrinally grounded, and deeply yielded to Christ. This is the kind of generation EDC seeks to help raise.

As you journey through this handbook and through the training itself, my prayer is that you will not approach this merely as a student completing courses, but as a disciple surrendering to formation. The goal is not simply to know more, but to become more yielded to Christ.

May the Lord grant you understanding, humility, discipline, and grace as you walk this path.

Welcome to the making of witnesses.

Discp. Samuel Ojo

Founder & President

ABOUT THE FOUNDER

Discp. Samuel Ojo

Founder, Awakening Ecclesia Global (AEG) and her training arm, Ecclesia Discipleship and Commissioning (EDC)

Discp. Samuel Ojo is a servant of Christ with an apostolic burden toward spiritual growth, discipleship, doctrinal stability, and the raising of witnesses for the Kingdom of God.

In the year 2019, through profound dealings, revelations, and spiritual encounters with the Lord Jesus Christ, he was called and sent into ministry with a burden centered on the restoration of the essence of Christianity and the raising of sons unto God. This calling carried a deep concern for the condition of modern Christianity, particularly the growing disconnect between spiritual activity and genuine spiritual growth.

The burden was not merely toward preaching, but toward rebuilding the essence of Christianity as originally revealed in Christ and practiced in the early Church: a Christianity rooted in truth, holiness, inward transformation, sound doctrine, spiritual maturity, and complete surrender to God.

Out of this burden emerged the ministry now known as Awakening Ecclesia, a non-denominational and interdenominational apostolic ministry committed to awakening believers into deeper realities of Christ and preparing lives for faithful Kingdom witness. The ministry was formerly known as Ekklesia Christian Network (ECN) before transitioning into Awakening Ecclesia Global (AEG) as the vision became clearer and broader in apostolic direction.

As the burden for raising and forming believers grew stronger, the discipleship work that began around 2022 gradually developed into a more structured spiritual cave and ministerial training expression. By 2025, this vision matured into Ecclesia Discipleship &

Commissioning (EDC): the training and maturity arm established for the raising, grounding, shaping, and commissioning of believers and ministers.

EDC was established from the conviction that many believers are taught but not formed, gifted but not governed, active but not rooted. The vision therefore became centered on developing disciples who are:

Grounded in Scripture; formed inwardly by Christ; disciplined spiritually; doctrinally sound; discerning in spirit; and faithful in witness and ministry.

Discp. Samuel Ojo holds a Bachelor of Science (B.Sc.) degree in Physics with specialization in Petrophysics from Obafemi Awolowo University, Ile-Ife, Osun State, Nigeria. His academic background, combined with his spiritual burden, contributes to his emphasis on clarity, structure, doctrinal soundness, and deep spiritual formation.

His ministry emphasis includes:

Apostolic discipleship; Spiritual formation; Revival and awakening; Sound doctrine; Prayer and consecration; Raising witnesses and sons for God; The restoration of Christ-centered Christianity; Biblical teaching and theological Maturity.

Through Awakening Ecclesia Global and EDC, his desire remains to see believers deeply rooted in Christ, inwardly governed by truth, and prepared for faithful service to God in their generation.

“Living Truth. Revealing Christ. Advancing the Kingdom.”

Statement of Faith

At Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC), we believe that the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments are the inspired, authoritative, and sufficient Word of God, profitable for doctrine, correction, instruction, and training in righteousness (2 Timothy 3:16–17; 2 Peter 1:20–21). We believe there is one eternal God, revealed as Father, Son, and Holy Spirit, sovereign over all creation and worthy of all worship (Deuteronomy 6:4; Matthew 28:19).

We believe that Jesus Christ is the eternal Son of God, fully God and fully man, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the virgin Mary, lived a sinless life, died for the sins of humanity, rose bodily from the dead, ascended into heaven, and now reigns as Lord and Savior (John 1:1–14; 1 Corinthians 15:3–4; Acts 4:12). We believe salvation is by grace through faith in Christ alone, and that the new birth through the Holy Spirit brings forgiveness, reconciliation with God, and transformation into a new life in Christ (Ephesians 2:8–9; John 3:3–6; 2 Corinthians 5:17).

We believe in the active ministry of the Holy Spirit, who indwells believers, produces spiritual fruit, distributes spiritual gifts, empowers holy living, and leads the Church into truth (John 16:13; Galatians 5:22–25; 1 Corinthians 12:4–11). We affirm that all spiritual experiences and manifestations must remain subject to Scripture and centered upon the revelation of Jesus Christ (1 John 4:1–3).

We believe the Church is the Body of Christ, called to worship, discipleship, spiritual formation, sound doctrine, fellowship, prayer, and the proclamation of the Gospel to all nations (Acts 2:42; Matthew 28:18–20; Ephesians 4:11–16). We believe believers are called to holiness, consecration, and continual growth into the likeness of Christ through obedience, spiritual discipline, and the transforming work of the Spirit (Romans 12:1–2; Hebrews 12:14; Galatians 4:19).

We believe in the return of the Lord Jesus Christ, the resurrection of the dead, the final judgment, and the everlasting Kingdom of God (1 Thessalonians 4:16–17; Revelation 20:11–15). Above all, we affirm that Jesus Christ is the center of Scripture, the foundation of the Church, and the hope of all creation, and that all doctrine, ministry, and Christian living must ultimately reveal Christ and glorify God (Colossians 1:18; Hebrews 12:2).

Academic Structure

Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC) operates through a progressive theological and spiritual formation structure designed to develop believers from foundational spiritual journey into mature biblical understanding, ministry competence, doctrinal stability, and apostolic readiness. The academic structure combines theological depth, spiritual formation, ministry preparation, and practical commissioning within an integrated discipleship framework.

The EDC curriculum is organized into four academic sessions, with each session consisting of two semesters, making a total of eight semesters across the full formation and commissioning program.

Each semester is designed around a distinct theological and spiritual emphasis, ensuring that students progress systematically from foundational Christian formation into advanced theological reflection, ministry leadership, biblical interpretation, mission strategy, and commissioning readiness.

The structure of the program is as follows:

- Session 1
 - Semester 1: Foundations of Faith & Spiritual Formation
 - Semester 2: Introduction to the Bible & Redemptive Story
- Session 2
 - Semester 3: New Testament & Apostolic Doctrine
 - Semester 4: Ministry Formation & Practical Commissioning
- Session 3
 - Semester 5: Leadership, History & Ecclesial Identity

- Semester 6: Advanced Biblical Theology & Exegesis

- Session 4

- Semester 7: Advanced Biblical Languages, Hermeneutics & Apologetics
- Semester 8: Research, Synthesis & Commissioning

The curriculum follows a progressive formation model. Students are first grounded in salvation, holiness, doctrine, inner transformation, and spiritual discipline before advancing into biblical theology, ministry leadership, hermeneutics, apologetics, research, and apostolic commissioning. This progression reflects the conviction of EDC that believers must be formed before they are platformed, rooted before they are released, and governed inwardly before they lead outwardly.

Credit Unit Structure

Each course within the EDC curriculum carries assigned Credit Units (CU), reflecting the academic weight, theological depth, workload, and formative demands of the course. Credit allocation varies according to the complexity and scope of study.

Most semesters carry approximately:

- 23–25 Credit Units, depending on the semester emphasis and course load.

Courses are weighted according to:

- Theological depth
- Research requirements
- Ministry application
- Spiritual formation expectations
- Language or exegesis intensity
- Practicum and thesis responsibilities

Advanced research and thesis semesters contain heavier academic demands, particularly within:

- Thesis Research
- Biblical Languages
- Exegesis
- Hermeneutics
- Apologetics
- Ministerial Assessment & Commissioning

Progression Structure

Progression within EDC is both academic and spiritual. Advancement is not based solely upon classroom performance, but also upon evidence of spiritual maturity, doctrinal stability, discipline, character, and ministry faithfulness.

Students are expected to progress through the sessions sequentially, beginning from foundational formation and advancing toward theological depth and ministry readiness. The progression model reflects EDC's conviction that deep ministry must emerge from deep formation.

Students may be assessed through:

- Written examinations
- Research assignments
- Ministry practicum
- Oral presentations
- Scriptural interpretation exercises
- Spiritual formation evaluations
- Leadership observation
- Character and accountability assessments
- Thesis and research defense
- Ministerial review and commissioning evaluation

Successful completion of each level qualifies the student for advancement into the next stage of formation and training.

The final stage of progression culminates in:

- Ministerial assessment
- Spiritual evaluation
- Research/thesis completion
- Leadership review
- Apostolic commissioning readiness

EDC therefore understands graduation not merely as academic completion, but as evidence of doctrinal grounding, spiritual maturity, inward formation, ministry readiness, and faithfulness to Christ.

Admission & Enrollment Requirements

Admission into Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC) is open to believers who sincerely desire spiritual growth, biblical grounding, inner formation, and faithful preparation for Christian life and ministry. Because EDC is not merely an academic institution but a spiritual formation and commissioning environment, admission is based not only upon intellectual interest, but also upon spiritual readiness, teachability, and willingness to submit to the formation process.

Applicants seeking enrollment into EDC are expected to have experienced the new birth through faith in Jesus Christ and demonstrate a sincere desire to grow in spiritual maturity, sound doctrine, holiness, discipleship, and devotion to God. While students may come from different church backgrounds or denominational traditions, all applicants must be willing to learn within the doctrinal, spiritual, and formative framework of the institution.

Prospective students must possess a teachable spirit and a willingness to participate actively in the spiritual and academic life of the training. Since EDC emphasizes inward formation alongside theological training, students are expected to embrace accountability, correction, discipline, and spiritual oversight in humility and sincerity.

Enrollment into EDC therefore requires:

- A personal confession of faith in Jesus Christ
- A sincere desire for spiritual formation and growth
- Willingness to live in accordance with biblical ethics and Christian character
- Openness to discipleship, mentorship, and accountability
- Commitment to doctrinal learning and spiritual discipline
- Respect for institutional leadership, policies, and spiritual order
- Consistent participation in classes, assignments, prayer activities, and ministry engagements
- A readiness to pursue holiness, integrity, humility, and faithful Christian conduct

Applicants may also be required to complete:

- An admission form or registration process
- A brief statement of spiritual testimony or conversion experience
- A pastoral or leadership recommendation where applicable
- An interview or orientation process for placement and guidance

Because EDC is a discipleship and commissioning institution, admission into the program should not be approached casually. Students are encouraged to enter with prayerfulness, sincerity, spiritual hunger, and readiness for transformation.

The institution reserves the right to counsel, suspend, defer, or discontinue students whose conduct, doctrine, attitude, or persistent resistance to accountability contradicts the spiritual values and formation goals of EDC.

At EDC, enrollment is not merely entry into a school, but entrance into a journey of growth, spiritual maturity, biblical grounding, and preparation for faithful witness and service in the Kingdom of God.

“Here, disciples are not merely taught; they are transformed.”

Academic Policies

Ecclesia Discipleship & Commissioning (EDC) maintains academic, spiritual, and ministerial standards intended to cultivate discipline, responsibility, consistency, doctrinal soundness, and spiritual maturity within every student. Because EDC combines theological education with spiritual formation, students are expected to approach both academic and spiritual responsibilities with seriousness, faithfulness, and integrity.

All students enrolled in EDC are expected to participate fully in lectures, assignments, spiritual exercises, discussions, ministry engagements, examinations, and institutional activities. Academic progress within EDC is measured not only through intellectual performance, but also through consistency, accountability, spiritual discipline, character, and faithful participation in the formation process.

Attendance is compulsory for all classes, meetings, prayer gatherings, mentorship sessions, and officially scheduled institutional activities. Regular attendance reflects seriousness toward formation and respect for the learning process. Repeated absence, lateness, negligence, or disengagement may affect a student's academic standing and spiritual evaluation within the institution.

Students are expected to maintain punctuality, attentiveness, and active participation during classes and training sessions. Persistent disruption, disorderly conduct, or habitual irresponsibility may result in disciplinary review.

Assignments form an essential aspect of the learning structure at EDC and are designed to strengthen theological understanding, scriptural interpretation, personal reflection, ministry application, research ability, and spiritual engagement. Students are expected to complete and submit assignments within approved deadlines. Late submissions without reasonable explanation may attract penalties or rejection depending on institutional discretion.

Academic dishonesty, plagiarism, examination malpractice, falsification of reports, impersonation, or any form of intellectual misconduct is considered a serious violation of institutional integrity and may result in disciplinary action, suspension, or dismissal from the program.

Students will undergo periodic assessments through:

- Written assignments
- Scripture interpretation exercises
- Quizzes and tests
- Mid-semester evaluations
- Semester examinations
- Oral presentations
- Ministry practicums
- Research projects
- Spiritual formation assessments
- Thesis and oral defense (where applicable)

Examinations are conducted at the end of designated academic periods to evaluate theological understanding, doctrinal clarity, scriptural comprehension, ministry application, and spiritual maturity. Students are expected to conduct themselves honorably and prayerfully during all examinations.

EDC also places strong emphasis upon personal spiritual discipline and devotional consistency. As part of the spiritual formation structure of the institution, students are expected to maintain a consistent prayer life and devotional practice throughout their training period.

Students may therefore be required to participate in:

- Daily prayer engagements
- Scripture meditation and devotional exercises
- Spiritual discipline reports
- Prayer watches or intercession gatherings
- Ministry reflections and accountability reviews

In particular, students are expected to maintain a structured daily prayer life, including designated prayer periods assigned by the institution where applicable. Prayer reports, spiritual discipline records, or accountability reflections may periodically be submitted as part of the formation process. These exercises are not intended as legalistic activities, but as tools for cultivating consistency, intimacy with God, spiritual sensitivity, and inward discipline.

Because EDC is both academic and formational, grading and evaluation may include consideration of:

- Academic performance
- Assignment completion
- Attendance and punctuality
- Participation and engagement
- Ministry involvement
- Leadership conduct
- Accountability and discipline
- Spiritual consistency and faithfulness

Students who repeatedly demonstrate negligence, persistent disorderliness, resistance to correction, doctrinal instability, unethical behavior, or unwillingness to participate in institutional formation processes may be placed under disciplinary review, probation, temporary suspension, or dismissal where necessary.

At EDC, academic excellence is valued, but character, faithfulness, humility, discipline, spiritual growth, and integrity remain equally important. The institution therefore seeks to produce not merely knowledgeable students, but spiritually formed disciples, faithful ministers, and trustworthy witnesses of Christ.

Structured Learning Levels

SESSION 1

SEMESTER 1 : FOUNDATIONS OF FAITH & SPIRITUAL FORMATION

(Establishing new birth, holiness, identity and inner governance)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	New Birth and Assurance of Salvation	EDC 101	1
2	Doctrine of God: Nature of God	EDC 102	2
3	Holiness and Sanctification	EDC 103	2
4	Introduction to Doctrine	EDC 104	2
5	Discipleship Foundations	EDC 105	2
6	Spiritual Disciplines	EDC 106	1
7	Theology of Prayer & Intercession	EDC 107	1
8	Theology of the Inner Man	EDC 108	2
9	Ethics and Christian Character	EDC 109	2
10	Brokenness, Consecration & Spiritual Discipline	EDC 110	2
11	Dealing with the Flesh, Ego & Ambition	EDC 111	1
12	Spiritual Authority, Submission & Accountability	EDC 112	2
13	Discernment of Spirits (Biblical Foundations)	EDC 113	2
14	Pentecostal Heritage	EDC 114	1
			23units

OUTCOME:

A grounded believer with spiritual stability, disciplined devotion, governed desires and formed inner life.

SEMESTER 2 : INTRODUCTION TO THE BIBLE & REDEMPTIVE STORY

(Understanding Scripture as one unified revelation)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Overview of the Old and New Testaments	EDC 201	2
2	Canon of Scripture & Inspiration	EDC 202	3
3	Biblical Interpretation (Introductory Hermeneutics)	EDC 203	2
4	Introduction to Biblical Theology	EDC 204	1
5	Pentateuch	EDC 205	2
6	Historical Books of the Old Testament	EDC 206	2
7	Psalms & Wisdom Literature	EDC 207	2
8	Prophets	EDC 208	2
9	Synoptic Gospels	EDC 209	2
10	Acts of the Apostles	EDC 210	3
11	Scripture as Redemptive History	EDC 211	2
			23units

OUTCOME:

A disciple who reads Scripture as a coherent redemptive narrative, not fragmented proof texts.

SESSION 2

SEMESTER 3 : NEW TESTAMENT & APOSTOLIC DOCTRINE

(Christ, salvation, the Church, and apostolic truth)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Christology	EDC 301	2
2	Anthropology & Hamartiology (Man and Sin)	EDC 302	2
3	Pneumatology (Doctrine of the Holy Spirit)	EDC 303	2
4	Ecclesiology (Doctrine of the Church)	EDC 304	2
5	Romans (Soteriology and Justification)	EDC 305	2
6	Biblical Theology of the Kingdom of God	EDC 306	2
7	Epistles of Paul	EDC 307	2
8	General Epistles & Revelation	EDC 308	2
9	Interpretation and Theology of Johannine Writings	EDC 309	2
10	Interpretation and Theology of General Epistles (Hebrews - Revelation)	EDC 310	2
11	Biblical Eschatology (End Times)	EDC 311	2
12	Spiritual Gifts (Biblical Balance)	EDC 312	1
13	Theology of Worship & Priesthood	EDC 313	2
			25units

OUTCOME:

A disciple rooted in apostolic doctrine, Christ-centered theology, and Spirit-empowered living.

SEMESTER 4 : MINISTRY FORMATION & PRACTICAL COMMISSIONING

(Equipping for service, preaching, care, and leadership)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Principles of Ministry	EDC 401	2
2	Theology of Mission & Contextualization	EDC 402	2
3	Preaching I: Foundations of Proclamation	EDC 403	2
4	Preaching II: Advanced Homiletics	EDC 404	2
5	Church Administration	EDC 405	1
6	Ecclesial Formation & Healthy Church Development	EDC 406	2
7	Biblical & Theological Foundations of Leadership	EDC 407	2
8	Leadership I	EDC 408	1
9	Pastoral Ministry & Shepherding	EDC 409	2
10	Biblical Counseling Foundations	EDC 410	2
11	Christian Marriage, Family & Sexuality	EDC 411	2
12	Church Polity & Governance	EDC 412	1
13	Ministry Ethics & Accountability	EDC 413	2
			23units

OUTCOME:

A servant-minister who can preach soundly, shepherd wisely, and lead responsibly.

SESSION 3

SEMESTER 5 : LEADERSHIP, HISTORY & ECCLESIAL IDENTITY

(Understanding continuity, doctrine, and cultural responsibility)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Leadership II	EDC 501	1
2	Power, Authority & Abuse Prevention	EDC 502	2
3	History of Doctrine	EDC 503	2
4	Patristic Theology	EDC 504	2
5	Medieval & Reformation Theology	EDC 505	2
6	Pentecostal & Charismatic Theology	EDC 506	2
7	Revival History & Theology	EDC 507	2
8	History of African Christianity	EDC 508	2
9	Theology of Mission in African & Global Context	EDC 509	2
10	Financial Integrity & Stewardship in Ministry	EDC 510	2
11	Philosophy & Theology of Education	EDC 511	2
12	Theological Integration	EDC 512	2
			23units

OUTCOME:

A leader grounded in history, doctrine, culture, and ethical responsibility

SEMESTER 6 : EXEGETICAL & THEOLOGICAL DEPTH

(Handling Scripture with precision and reverence)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Exegetical Principles	EDC 601	3
2	Biblical Intertextuality	EDC 602	2
3	Old & New Testament Theology	EDC 603	3
4	Systematic Theology I (God, Christ, Spirit)	EDC 604	2
5	Systematic Theology II (Salvation, Church, Last thing)	EDC 605	2
6	Poetic, Wisdom & Prophetic Literature (Advanced)	EDC 606	3
7	ANE Backgrounds & Second Temple Period	EDC 607	3
8	Biblical Worldview & Theology of Culture	EDC 608	3
9	OT/NT Book Exegesis (Jonah, Gospels, Jude)	EDC 609	3
			24units

OUTCOME:

A mature teacher who can rightly divide the Word and trace doctrine across Scripture.

SESSION 4

SEMESTER 7 : ADVANCED BIBLICAL LANGUAGES, HERMENEUTICS & APOLOGETICS

(Textual mastery and defense of the faith)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Advanced Hermeneutics	EDC 701	3
2	Greek & Hebrew Exegesis Practicum	EDC 702	2
3	Advanced Old Testament Hebrew Grammar	EDC 703	3
4	Advanced New Testament Greek Grammar	EDC 704	3
5	Introduction to Aramaic	EDC 705	2
6	Textual Criticism (OT & NT)	EDC 706	2
7	Pauline Theology (Advanced)	EDC 707	2
8	Biblical Apologetics	EDC 708	2
9	Theology of World Religions	EDC 709	2
10	Engaging Secularism & Modern Ideologies	EDC 710	2
11	Faith, Reason & Science	EDC 711	1
			24units

OUTCOME:

A skilled interpreter and defender of the faith, capable of Scholarly and public engagement.

SEMESTER 8 : RESEARCH, SYNTHESIS & COMMISSIONING

(Demonstrating mastery and readiness for apostolic assignment)

S/N	Course Title	Course Code	CU
1	Logic & Critical Thinking	EDC 801	2
2	Advanced Research & Academic Writing	EDC 802	3
3	Thesis	EDC 803	5
4	Theology of Calling & Vocation	EDC 804	2
5	Apostolic Ministry & Missional Strategy	EDC 805	2
6	Spiritual Warfare & Kingdom Authority	EDC 806	2
7	Theology of Suffering, Persecution & Martyrdom	EDC 807	2
8	Life Rule for Ministers & Longevity	EDC 808	2
9	Succession, Legacy & Spiritual Fathering	EDC 809	2
10	Ministerial Assessment, Ordination & Commissioning	EDC 810	2
			24units

OUTCOME:

A commissioned labourer who is spiritually formed, biblically deep, doctrinally sound, culturally intelligent, and mission-ready.

In EDC, we produce strong men and women of Scripture. They are formed before they are platformed, rooted before they are released, deep in Scripture, disciplined in spirit, and dangerous to error.”

COURSE CONTENTS/DESCRIPTION

EDC 101 : New Birth and Assurance of Salvation

Course Description: This course examines the biblical doctrine and experience of salvation through Jesus Christ. Attention is given to repentance, regeneration, justification, adoption, sanctification, assurance of salvation, perseverance, and the transforming work of grace in the believer's life. The course emphasizes conversion, identity in Christ, and evidences of genuine spiritual life.

Course Contents: The meaning and necessity of salvation; The fall of humanity and the need for redemption; Repentance and faith; Regeneration and the new birth; Justification by faith; Adoption into the family of God; Union with Christ; Assurance of salvation; Sanctification and spiritual growth; Perseverance and apostasy debates; Evidences of genuine conversion; Identity in Christ.

EDC 102: Doctrine of God: Nature of God

Course Description: This course studies the biblical doctrine of God with emphasis on His nature, attributes, character, and self-revelation. Students examine the unity of God, the Trinity, divine holiness, sovereignty, omnipotence, omniscience, eternity, justice, mercy, and the implications of knowing God rightly.

Course Contents: Introduction to Theology Proper; The existence of God; Divine revelation and knowledge of God; The names of God in Scripture; Attributes of God; Holiness and transcendence of God; The sovereignty of God; The Trinity; The love, mercy, and justice of God; The immutability and eternality of God; The works of God in creation and providence; Worship and reverence toward God.

EDC 103: Holiness and Sanctification

Course Description: This course explores holiness as the nature of God and the calling of the believer. Students study sanctification, consecration, purity, spiritual maturity, separation unto God, and victorious Christian living through the work of the Holy Spirit.

Course Contents: The holiness of God; Holiness in the Old and New Testaments; Positional and progressive sanctification; Consecration and separation unto God; Purity of heart and conduct; The work of the Holy Spirit in sanctification; Holiness and spiritual warfare; Grace and obedience; Temptation and overcoming sin; Holiness movements in Church history; Practical holiness in daily life; Holiness and ministry

EDC 104: Introduction to Doctrine

Course Description: This course introduces foundational Christian doctrines and their significance in the life of the believer and the Church. Emphasis is placed on doctrinal clarity, theological coherence, biblical authority, and the role of doctrine in spiritual formation and ministry.

Course Contents: Meaning and purpose of doctrine; Sources of Christian theology; Revelation and inspiration; Doctrine of Scripture; Doctrine of God; Doctrine of Christ; Doctrine of humanity and sin; Doctrine of salvation; Doctrine of the Holy Spirit; Doctrine of the Church; Doctrine of last things; The importance of sound doctrine

EDC 105: Discipleship Foundations

Course Description: This course examines the call to discipleship in the teachings of Jesus and the apostolic Church. Students study spiritual growth, obedience, mentorship, discipline, covenant community, and spiritual reproduction as foundational dimensions of Christian discipleship.

Course Contents: The meaning of discipleship; The call of Jesus to discipleship; Counting the cost; Obedience and spiritual formation; Following Christ daily; Mentorship and spiritual fatherhood; Discipline and accountability; The disciple and the local church; Reproduction and multiplication; Kingdom lifestyle and witness; Perseverance in discipleship; The Great Commission and disciple-making.

EDC 106: Spiritual Disciplines

Course Description: This course studies biblical and historical spiritual disciplines that cultivate intimacy with God and spiritual maturity. Students are guided toward disciplined Christian living through prayer, fasting, worship, meditation, stewardship, silence, solitude, and devotion to Scripture.

Course Contents: The theology of spiritual formation; Prayer as spiritual discipline; Fasting and self-denial; Meditation on Scripture; Worship and devotion; Silence and solitude; Discipline in daily Christian living; Stewardship of time and resources; Simplicity and contentment; Spiritual habits and consistency; Historical Christian disciplines; Spiritual disciplines and transformation.

EDC 107: Theology of Prayer & Intercession

Course Description: This course examines prayer as communion with God, priestly ministry, partnership in divine purpose, and spiritual warfare. Biblical foundations, apostolic prayer patterns, corporate prayer, intercession, and revival prayer movements are studied.

Course Contents: Theology and purpose of prayer; Prayer in the Old Testament; Prayer in the ministry of Jesus; Apostolic prayer patterns; Intercession and priestly ministry; Corporate prayer and solemn assemblies; Travail and burden-bearing prayer; Watchman ministry; Prayer and spiritual warfare; Fasting and intercession; Prayer and revival; Hindrances to prayer.

EDC 108: Theology of the Inner Man

Course Description: This course examines the inward life of the believer and the spiritual constitution of humanity. Attention is given to the spirit, soul, conscience, emotions, desires, motives, inward transformation, and maturity through the work of the Holy Spirit.

Course Contents: The nature of humanity; Spirit, soul, and body; The conscience and inward witness; The renewed mind; Emotional health and spiritual maturity; Motives and intentions of the heart; Healing of the inner life; The heart in biblical theology; Transformation through the Holy Spirit; Spiritual sensitivity and discernment; The inner man and outward conduct; Maturity and inward governance.

EDC 109: Ethics and Christian Character

Course Description: This course studies biblical ethics and the formation of Christlike character. Students examine integrity, humility, speech, stewardship, justice, relationships, and moral responsibility in both private and public life.

Course Contents: Foundations of biblical ethics; Character formation in Scripture; Integrity and honesty; Humility and servanthood; Speech and conduct; Sexual purity and morality; Stewardship and responsibility; Justice, mercy, and compassion; Christian relationships; Ethics in leadership and ministry; Ethics in society and culture; The fruit of the Spirit and character.

EDC 110: Brokenness, Consecration & Spiritual Discipline

Course Description: This course explores the role of brokenness, surrender, and consecration in spiritual formation and ministry preparation. Emphasis is placed on humility, refinement, self-denial, obedience, and becoming a vessel fit for divine use.

Course Contents: Biblical theology of brokenness

The process of spiritual refinement; Consecration and surrender; Self-denial and the cross; Humility and dependence on God; Wilderness experiences in Scripture; Discipline and endurance; Obedience and submission; Brokenness and ministry preparation; Refinement through suffering; The making of spiritual vessels; Spiritual discipline and maturity

EDC 111: Dealing with the Flesh, Ego & Ambition

Course Description: This course addresses the nature of the flesh and the dangers of pride, selfish ambition, carnality, and self-exaltation in the life of the believer and minister. Biblical pathways toward humility, crucified living, and purity of motives are emphasized.

Course Contents: The biblical concept of the flesh; Carnality and spiritual immaturity; Pride and self-exaltation; Selfish ambition in ministry; The danger of ego and self-centeredness; Humility in the life of Christ; Crucifying the flesh; Purity of motives; Contentment and hiddenness; Spiritual ambition versus worldly ambition; Accountability and self-examination; Walking in the Spirit.

EDC 112: Spiritual Authority, Submission & Accountability

Course Description: This course examines biblical authority structures, servant leadership, submission, honor, correction, and accountability in the Church. Attention is given to healthy leadership culture and the misuse or abuse of authority.

Course Contents: Biblical foundations of authority; Authority and servanthood; Submission in Scripture; Honor and spiritual relationships; Accountability structures; Leadership and responsibility; Correction and discipline; Spiritual covering and guidance; Abuse of authority; Rebellion and independence; Healthy ministry relationships; Authority under Christ.

EDC 113: Discernment of Spirits (Biblical Foundations)

Course Description: This course studies spiritual discernment within biblical and theological boundaries. Students examine testing of spirits, prophetic discernment, deception, false doctrine, spiritual atmospheres, and the role of wisdom and Scripture in discernment.

Course Contents: Biblical foundations of discernment

The discernment of spirits gift; Testing spirits and doctrines; False prophets and false teachings; Spiritual deception in Scripture; Wisdom and discernment; Discernment in leadership and ministry; Spiritual atmospheres and influences; Prophetic discernment; The role of Scripture in discernment; Discernment and maturity; Balance and caution in spiritual discernment

EDC 114: Pentecostal Heritage

Course Description: This course surveys the historical roots, theological foundations, and global expansion of Pentecostalism. Emphasis is placed on revival movements, Spirit baptism, spiritual gifts, healing ministry, missions, and contemporary Pentecostal theology.

Course Contents: Origins of Pentecostalism; Holiness and revival movements; The Azusa Street Revival; Spirit baptism theology; Spiritual gifts and manifestations; Healing and deliverance ministries; Pentecostal worship and spirituality; Pentecostal missions and evangelism; African Pentecostal movements; Contemporary charismatic movements; Pentecostal theology and doctrine; Challenges and critiques of Pentecostalism

SEMESTER 2: INTRODUCTION TO THE BIBLE & REDEMPITIVE STORY

Understanding Scripture as One Unified Revelation

EDC 201: Overview of the Old and New Testaments

Course Description: This course provides a panoramic survey of the Old and New Testaments, tracing the historical development, literary structure, covenant progression, and theological unity of Scripture from Genesis to Revelation. Emphasis is placed on understanding the Bible as one coherent redemptive narrative centered in Christ.

Course Contents: Introduction to the Bible; Structure of the Old Testament; Structure of the New Testament; Historical periods of biblical history; Covenants in Scripture; Major biblical themes; The storyline of redemption; The Kingdom of God in Scripture; Messianic expectation and fulfillment; The relationship between Old and New Testaments; Christ as the center of Scripture; Unity and diversity of biblical revelation

EDC 202: Canon of Scripture & Inspiration

Course Description: This course examines the origin, formation, preservation, authority, and inspiration of the biblical canon. Students study revelation, inspiration, transmission, canonization, textual preservation, and the theological authority of Scripture in the life of the Church.

Course Contents: Meaning and significance of canon; Divine revelation and inspiration; Authority of Scripture; Formation of the Old Testament canon; Formation of the New Testament canon; Criteria for canonization; Transmission of biblical manuscripts; Preservation of Scripture; Reliability and trustworthiness of the Bible; Apocryphal and pseudepigraphal writings; The doctrine of inerrancy and infallibility; Scripture and ecclesial authority.

EDC 203: Biblical Interpretation (Introductory Hermeneutics)

Course Description: This course introduces foundational principles of biblical interpretation. Students study historical, grammatical, literary, and theological approaches to interpreting Scripture responsibly within its context and redemptive framework.

Course Contents: Nature and purpose of hermeneutics; Historical context in interpretation; Grammatical interpretation; Literary genres in Scripture; Contextual analysis; Symbolism and figurative language; Typology and biblical patterns; Word studies and lexical analysis; Principles of interpretation; Common interpretive errors; Application of Scripture; Christ-centered interpretation.

EDC 204: Introduction to Biblical Theology

Course Description: This course introduces the progressive unfolding of God's redemptive revelation across Scripture. Students examine major biblical themes such as covenant, kingdom, temple, priesthood, sacrifice, promise, fulfillment, and the unity of Scripture in Christ.

Course Contents: Definition and scope of biblical theology; Progressive revelation; Covenant theology in Scripture; Kingdom theology; Temple and presence theology; Priesthood and sacrifice; Promise and fulfillment; Creation and new creation; Typology and biblical patterns; Israel and the Church; Christ as the climax of revelation; Biblical theology and systematic theology.

EDC 205: Pentateuch

Course Description: This course studies Genesis through Deuteronomy with emphasis on creation, covenant, law, worship, redemption, wilderness formation, and the theological foundations of Israel's identity and redemptive history.

Course Contents: Introduction to the Pentateuch; Authorship and composition; Creation and fall; Flood and nations; Abrahamic covenant; Patriarchal narratives; Exodus and redemption; Mosaic covenant and law; Tabernacle and worship; Priesthood and sacrifice; Wilderness journey and formation; Covenant renewal in Deuteronomy.

EDC 206: Historical Books of the Old Testament

Course Description: This course examines Joshua through Esther, focusing on conquest, kingship, covenant history, exile, restoration, worship, leadership, and the unfolding of redemptive history within Israel's national life.

Course Contents: Introduction to the Historical Books; Joshua and covenant fulfillment; Judges and covenant decline; Ruth and covenant faithfulness; Samuel and prophetic leadership; Kingship and the Davidic covenant; Division of the kingdom; Prophetic confrontation in Israel; Exile and covenant judgment; Chronicles and postexilic theology; Ezra-Nehemiah and restoration; Esther and divine providence

EDC 207: Psalms & Wisdom Literature

Course Description: This course explores the theology, poetry, worship, wisdom, suffering, and practical spirituality found in Job, Psalms, Proverbs, Ecclesiastes, and Song of Solomon.

Course Contents: Nature of Hebrew poetry; Theology of worship in Psalms; Messianic Psalms; Lament and suffering; Wisdom theology in Proverbs; The fear of the Lord; Job and the problem of suffering; Ecclesiastes and meaning of life; Song of Solomon and covenant love; Worship and devotion in Scripture; Wisdom for righteous living; Christ in Wisdom Literature

EDC 208 — Prophets

Course Description: This course studies the Major and Minor Prophets with emphasis on covenant faithfulness, judgment, repentance, social justice, messianic expectation, restoration, and prophetic ministry in Israel.

Course Contents: Introduction to prophetic literature; The prophetic office in Israel; Covenant and prophetic ministry; Judgment and repentance; Social justice and righteousness; Messianic prophecy; The Day of the Lord; Exile and restoration; Prophetic symbolism and imagery; Major Prophets overview; Minor Prophets overview; Fulfillment of prophecy in Christ

EDC 209: Synoptic Gospels

Course Description: This course examines Matthew, Mark, and Luke as complementary witnesses to Jesus Christ. Students study the Kingdom of God, discipleship, miracles, parables, messianic fulfillment, and the theological unity and distinctions of the Synoptic tradition.

Course Contents: Nature of the Synoptic Gospels; Literary relationship of Matthew, Mark, and Luke; Historical background of the Gospels; The Kingdom of God; The ministry of

Jesus; Miracles and signs; Parables of Jesus; Discipleship in the Gospels; Conflict and opposition; Passion and resurrection narratives; Christology in the Synoptics; Mission and Gospel proclamation

EDC 210: Acts of the Apostles

Course Description: This course studies the expansion of the early Church through the ministry of the Holy Spirit as recorded in Acts. Emphasis is placed on Pentecost, apostolic mission, persecution, church growth, signs and wonders, and the spread of the Gospel from Jerusalem to Rome.

Course Contents: Introduction to Acts; The risen Christ and ascension; Pentecost and the coming of the Spirit; The birth of the Church; Apostolic preaching and witness; Signs, wonders, and miracles; Persecution and suffering; The Jerusalem Church; Expansion to Samaria and the Gentiles; The conversion and ministry of Paul; Missionary journeys; The Gospel in the Roman world

EDC 211: Scripture as Redemptive History

Course Description: This course examines Scripture as one unified redemptive narrative centered in Christ. Students study creation, fall, covenant, kingdom, promise, fulfillment, cross, resurrection, Church, and consummation within the unfolding drama of redemption.

Course Contents: The nature of redemptive history; Creation as covenantal foundation; The fall and proto-evangelium; Covenant and election; Exodus and redemption; Kingdom and kingship in Israel; Prophetic hope and messianic expectation; Christ as fulfillment of Scripture; The cross and resurrection; The Church and inaugurated Kingdom; Consummation and new creation; The glory of God in redemptive history

SEMESTER 3

NEW TESTAMENT & APOSTOLIC DOCTRINE

Christ, Salvation, the Church, and Apostolic Truth

EDC 301: Christology

Course Description: This course studies the person, nature, offices, and work of Jesus Christ. Emphasis is placed on His divinity, humanity, incarnation, earthly ministry, atoning death, resurrection, ascension, exaltation, and continuing ministry as Lord and Mediator.

Course Contents: Introduction to Christology; Pre-existence of Christ; The incarnation; The humanity of Christ; The divinity of Christ; The hypostatic union; Titles and offices of Christ; The ministry and teachings of Jesus; The atonement; Resurrection and ascension; The exaltation and lordship of Christ; Christ as Mediator and High Priest

EDC 302: Anthropology & Hamartiology (Man and Sin)

Course Description: This course examines the biblical doctrine of humanity and sin. Students study humanity as created in the image of God, the fall, depravity, corruption, guilt, and the effects of sin upon individuals, society, and creation.

Course Contents: Biblical anthropology; Humanity as image-bearer of God; The nature and purpose of humanity; The fall of humanity; Origin and nature of sin; Depravity and corruption; Sin and spiritual death; Effects of sin on creation and society; The conscience and moral responsibility; Temptation and human weakness; Grace and restoration; Redemption and new humanity in Christ.

EDC 303 — Pneumatology (Doctrine of the Holy Spirit)

Course Description: This course explores the person, nature, and ministry of the Holy Spirit in Scripture. Attention is given to Spirit baptism, sanctification, empowerment, gifts, fruit, guidance, revival, and the role of the Spirit in the Church and mission.

Course Contents: Introduction to Pneumatology; The personhood and deity of the Holy Spirit; The Holy Spirit in the Old Testament; The Holy Spirit in the ministry of Jesus; Pentecost and Spirit baptism; Indwelling and sealing of the Spirit; Sanctification and transformation; Spiritual gifts and ministries; Fruit of the Spirit; Guidance and illumination; The Spirit and revival; The Spirit in mission and the Church.

EDC 304 — Ecclesiology (Doctrine of the Church)

Course Description: This course studies the origin, nature, mission, ordinances, leadership, unity, and identity of the Church as the body of Christ and covenant community of God.

Course Contents: Nature and definition of the Church; The Church in redemptive history; Images and metaphors of the Church; The Church as the body of Christ; The mission of the Church; Ordinances: baptism and the Lord's Supper; Worship and fellowship; Church leadership and ministry; Unity and diversity in the Church; Discipline and accountability; The local and universal Church; The Church and the Kingdom of God.

EDC 305 — Romans (Soteriology and Justification)

Course Description: This course examines Paul's Epistle to the Romans with emphasis on justification by faith, grace, sin, salvation, sanctification, Israel, and life in the Spirit within Paul's theology of redemption.

Course Contents: Introduction to Romans; Universal sinfulness of humanity; Justification by faith; Grace and righteousness; Adam and Christ typology; Sanctification and holy living; Union with Christ; Life in the Spirit; Israel and the covenant promises; Election and mercy; Christian ethics in Romans; The doxology of redemption.

EDC 306: Biblical Theology of the Kingdom of God

Course Description: This course studies the Kingdom of God across Scripture, tracing its development from creation through Israel, Christ, the Church, and consummation. Themes of reign, authority, mission, covenant, and inaugurated eschatology are emphasized.

Course Contents: Definition of the Kingdom of God; Kingdom in creation; Kingdom and covenant; Theocratic kingdom in Israel; Kingship and the Davidic covenant; Prophetic hope of the Kingdom; The Kingdom in the ministry of Jesus; Kingdom parables and miracles; The Church and the Kingdom; Already and not yet eschatology; Kingdom mission and discipleship; Kingdom consummation and new creation.

EDC 307 — Epistles of Paul

Course Description: This course surveys the Pauline Epistles, examining their historical background, theological themes, pastoral concerns, and apostolic instruction for Christian faith, doctrine, and ministry.

Course Contents: Introduction to Pauline literature; Life and ministry of Paul; Historical background of the Epistles; Theology of grace and salvation; Justification and sanctification; The Church in Pauline theology; Christian ethics in Paul; Leadership and ministry; Suffering and perseverance; Eschatology in the Pauline Epistles; Prison Epistles; Pastoral Epistles.

EDC 308 — General Epistles & Revelation

Course Description: This course studies Hebrews through Revelation with emphasis on perseverance, holiness, suffering, covenant fulfillment, judgment, hope, worship, and eschatological consummation.

Course Contents: Introduction to the General Epistles; Hebrews and the superiority of Christ; Faith and works in James; Suffering and holiness in Peter; Love and truth in Johannine Epistles; Apostasy and false teaching in Jude; Apocalyptic literature and symbolism; Theology of Revelation; Judgment and perseverance; Worship and heavenly visions; The return of Christ; New heavens and new earth.

EDC 309 — Interpretation and Theology of Johannine Writings

Course Description: This course examines the Gospel of John, the Johannine Epistles, and Revelation with emphasis on Christology, eternal life, love, truth, witness, light and darkness, and apocalyptic theology.

Course Contents: Johannine authorship and background; Theology of the Gospel of John; Signs and miracles in John; The “I AM” sayings; Eternal life and salvation; Love and fellowship in the Epistles; Truth and falsehood; The Holy Spirit in Johannine theology; Witness and testimony; Apocalyptic theology in Revelation; Johannine eschatology; Christology in Johannine writings.

EDC 310 — Interpretation and Theology of General Epistles (Hebrews–Revelation)

Course Description: This course provides detailed theological and exegetical study of the General Epistles and Revelation. Emphasis is placed on covenant fulfillment, endurance, worship, holiness, apostasy, judgment, and eschatological hope.

Course Contents: Interpretive approaches to Hebrews–Revelation; Covenant theology in Hebrews; Perseverance and endurance; Faith and obedience; Suffering and persecution; Holiness and maturity; False teaching and apostasy; Worship in Revelation; Apocalyptic imagery and symbolism; Judgment and vindication; The return of Christ; Eschatological fulfillment and hope.

EDC 311 — Biblical Eschatology (End Times)

Course Description: This course studies biblical teachings concerning the return of Christ, resurrection, judgment, tribulation, millennium views, final consummation, and the new creation.

Course Contents: Introduction to eschatology; Old Testament eschatological hope; The Kingdom and the last days; The return of Christ; Resurrection of the dead; Final judgment; Tribulation and suffering; Millennium interpretations; Antichrist and apostasy; Heaven, hell, and eternal states; New heavens and new earth; Living in light of eternity.

EDC 312 — Spiritual Gifts (Biblical Balance)

Course Description: This course examines the gifts of the Holy Spirit within biblical and theological boundaries. Students study manifestation gifts, ministry gifts, character formation, discernment, order in worship, and abuse prevention.

Course Contents: Theology of spiritual gifts; Gifts in the Old and New Testaments; Manifestation gifts; Ministry gifts; Motivational gifts; Purpose of spiritual gifts; Spiritual gifts and the Church; Character and maturity; Order and decency in worship; Abuse and misuse of gifts; Discernment and accountability; Spiritual gifts and mission.

EDC 313 — Theology of Worship & Priesthood

Course Description: This course explores worship as priestly ministry and covenant response to God. Students study temple theology, praise, sacrifice, sacred assembly, worship leadership, and the believer’s priestly identity in Christ.

Course Contents: Theology of worship; Worship in the Old Testament; Temple and tabernacle theology; Priesthood in Scripture; Sacrifice and offering; Worship in the ministry of Jesus; Worship in the early Church; Praise and thanksgiving; Sacred assemblies and liturgy; Worship leadership and ministry; Worship and spiritual formation; The believer as priest before God.

SESSION 2

SEMESTER 4: MINISTRY FORMATION & PRACTICAL COMMISSIONING

Equipping for Service, Preaching, Care, and Leadership

EDC 401 — Principles of Ministry

Course Description: This course introduces foundational principles for Christian ministry and servant leadership. Students examine calling, character, stewardship, spiritual responsibility, ministry philosophy, and practical dimensions of faithful service within the Church and society.

Course Contents: Theology of ministry; Divine calling and vocation; Servant leadership in Scripture; Character and integrity in ministry; Spiritual responsibility and stewardship; Ministry motivations and purity of heart; The ministry of Christ as model; Ministry gifts and functions; Faithfulness and endurance; Ministry relationships and teamwork; Challenges in ministry; Lifelong development in ministry

EDC 402 — Theology of Mission & Contextualization

Course Description: This course studies the biblical theology of mission and the expansion of the Gospel among cultures and nations. Emphasis is placed on missio Dei, evangelism, contextualization, cross-cultural ministry, and the Church's role in global mission.

Course Contents: Biblical foundations of mission; The mission of God in Scripture; Mission in the Old Testament; The Great Commission; Apostolic mission in Acts; Cross-cultural communication; Contextualization and culture; Indigenous expressions of Christianity; Evangelism and discipleship; Mission strategy and church planting; Urban and global mission; Contemporary missiological challenges.

EDC 403 — Preaching I: Foundations of Proclamation

Course Description: This course introduces the theology and practice of biblical preaching. Students study sermon preparation, exposition, communication, interpretation for proclamation, and foundational homiletical methods.

Course Contents: Theology of preaching; The preacher and spiritual preparation; Biblical exposition; Hermeneutics for preaching; Sermon structure and organization; Types of sermons; Expository preaching; Textual and topical preaching; Illustration and application; Voice and delivery; Audience engagement; The authority of proclamation.

EDC 404 — Preaching II: Advanced Homiletics

Course Description: This course advances the theory and practice of preaching with emphasis on theological proclamation, prophetic preaching, sermon series construction, persuasion, contextual communication, and pulpit ministry.

Course Contents: Advanced sermon development; Christ-centered preaching; Prophetic proclamation; Narrative preaching; Theological preaching; Preaching difficult texts; Contextual communication; Sermon series planning; Persuasion and rhetoric; Pulpit ethics and integrity; Advanced delivery techniques; Evaluating preaching effectiveness.

EDC 405 — Church Administration

Course Description: This course examines organizational leadership and administration within ministry contexts. Students study planning, structure, finance, communication, records management, and stewardship in church operations.

Course Contents: Theology of administration; Organizational structure in ministry; Planning and strategic development; Leadership systems and delegation; Church finance and budgeting; Records and documentation; Communication in ministry; Human resource management; Event and program coordination; Conflict management; Stewardship and accountability; Administrative ethics.

EDC 406 — Ecclesial Formation & Healthy Church Development

Course Description: This course studies biblical and theological principles for healthy church growth and formation. Emphasis is placed on discipleship systems, community formation, leadership development, worship life, and sustainable ecclesial structures.

Course Contents: Nature of ecclesial formation; Healthy church principles; Discipleship and spiritual formation; Leadership development systems; Worship and congregational life; Church health assessment; Small groups and community structures; Church growth models; Multiplication and church planting; Cultural engagement and relevance; Conflict and restoration in churches; Sustainable ministry structures.

EDC 407 — Biblical & Theological Foundations of Leadership

Course Description: This course examines leadership through biblical and theological frameworks. Students study servant leadership, authority, humility, stewardship, vision, accountability, and spiritual influence.

Course Contents: Leadership in biblical theology; Leadership models in Scripture; Servant leadership; Spiritual authority and influence; Vision and direction; Humility and integrity; Stewardship and responsibility; Accountability in leadership; Leadership and sacrifice; Ethical leadership; Leadership failures in Scripture; Leadership formation and maturity.

EDC 408 — Leadership I

Course Description: This course introduces practical leadership development for ministry settings. Attention is given to communication, mentoring, conflict resolution, teamwork, emotional intelligence, and leadership dynamics.

Course Contents: Foundations of practical leadership; Communication skills; Team building and collaboration; Mentoring and coaching; Emotional intelligence; Decision-making processes; Problem-solving strategies; Leadership and relationships; Conflict management; Delegation and empowerment; Organizational behavior; Leadership growth and evaluation.

EDC 409 — Pastoral Ministry & Shepherding

Course Description: This course studies the theology and practice of pastoral ministry with emphasis on shepherding, spiritual oversight, soul care, congregational leadership, pastoral visitation, and doctrinal responsibility.

Course Contents: Biblical foundations of shepherding; The pastor as servant-leader; Spiritual oversight and care; Congregational nurture; Pastoral visitation; Counseling and encouragement; Caring for the wounded and weak; Leadership in worship and teaching; Protecting doctrinal integrity; Crisis and grief ministry; Ethics in pastoral ministry; The pastor's spiritual life.

EDC 410 — Biblical Counseling Foundations

Course Description: This course introduces biblical counseling principles and pastoral care practices. Students study emotional struggles, spiritual guidance, restoration, crisis care, discipleship counseling, and the use of Scripture in counseling ministry.

Course Contents: Foundations of biblical counseling; Theology of care and restoration; Counseling and discipleship; Listening and communication skills; Emotional and spiritual struggles; Anxiety, fear, and depression; Grief and crisis counseling; Marriage and family concerns; Sin, repentance, and restoration; Trauma and healing; Ethical issues in counseling; Counseling and prayer ministry.

EDC 411 — Christian Marriage, Family & Sexuality

Course Description: This course examines biblical and theological foundations of marriage, family, sexuality, gender, parenting, and covenant relationships within Christian life and ministry.

Course Contents: Theology of marriage; Covenant relationships in Scripture; Biblical sexuality; Gender and identity; Courtship and preparation for marriage; Communication in marriage; Conflict resolution in family life; Parenting and discipleship of children; Family systems and dynamics; Sexual ethics and purity; Marriage and ministry; Contemporary cultural challenges.

EDC 412 — Church Polity & Governance

Course Description: This course studies biblical and historical models of church governance and leadership structures. Emphasis is placed on ecclesial order, constitutions, administration, accountability, and organizational leadership.

Course Contents: Theology of church governance; Leadership structures in Scripture; Episcopal, presbyterian, and congregational models; Church constitutions and bylaws; Ecclesial authority and accountability; Ordination and leadership appointment; Church discipline; Conflict resolution in governance; Financial and organizational oversight; Governance ethics; Ministry structures and administration; Governance and mission effectiveness.

EDC 413 — Ministry Ethics & Accountability

Course Description: This course examines ethical standards and accountability systems necessary for healthy and responsible ministry. Students study integrity, financial ethics, sexuality, power dynamics, abuse prevention, and ministerial conduct.

Course Contents: Biblical ethics in ministry; Integrity and moral responsibility; Financial accountability; Sexual ethics and purity; Abuse of power and authority; Accountability structures; Transparency in leadership; Ethical decision-making; Ministerial conduct and reputation; Boundaries in ministry relationships; Restitution and restoration; Long-term faithfulness in ministry.

SESSION 3

SEMESTER 5: LEADERSHIP, HISTORY & ECCLESIAL IDENTITY

Understanding Continuity, Doctrine, and Cultural Responsibility

EDC 501 — Leadership II

Course Description: This course advances leadership development within ministry and organizational contexts. Emphasis is placed on strategic leadership, institutional culture, succession, crisis management, mentoring systems, and sustainable leadership formation.

Course Contents: Advanced leadership theory; Strategic leadership development; Vision implementation and execution; Organizational culture and influence; Crisis leadership and stability; Decision-making in leadership; Succession planning; Mentoring and leadership reproduction; Institutional development; Leadership and spiritual maturity; Sustainable ministry leadership; Leadership evaluation and accountability.

EDC 502 — Power, Authority & Abuse Prevention

Course Description: This course examines biblical authority, leadership ethics, and the prevention of spiritual and institutional abuse within ministry settings. Attention is given to servant leadership, accountability systems, manipulation, and healthy authority structures.

Course Contents: Theology of power and authority; Authority under Christ; Servant leadership in Scripture; Accountability and transparency; Spiritual abuse and manipulation; Authoritarian leadership systems; Emotional and psychological abuse; Financial exploitation in ministry; Sexual misconduct and boundaries; Safeguards and governance structures; Restoration and corrective processes; Building healthy ministry cultures.

EDC 503 — History of Doctrine

Course Description: This course surveys the historical development of Christian doctrine from the apostolic era to the modern Church. Students study theological controversies, councils, creeds, orthodoxy, heresies, and doctrinal formulation.

Course Contents: Nature and development of doctrine; Apostolic foundations of doctrine; Early heresies and controversies; Formation of creeds and confessions; Trinitarian controversies; Christological debates; Ecclesiological developments; Medieval doctrinal developments; Reformation doctrinal reforms; Modern theological movements; Orthodoxy and theological boundaries; Doctrine and Church identity.

EDC 504 — Patristic Theology

Course Description: This course studies the theology of the early Church Fathers and the doctrinal development of Christianity within the patristic era. Emphasis is placed on creedal formation, Christology, Trinitarian theology, spirituality, and ecclesiology.

Course Contents: Introduction to patristic theology; Apostolic Fathers and early Christianity; Apologists and defense of the faith; Trinitarian controversies; Christological development; Nicene and Chalcedonian theology; Augustine and Western theology; Eastern patristic theology; Worship and spirituality in the early Church; Monastic movements; Ecclesiology in the patristic period; Legacy of the Church Fathers.

EDC 505 — Medieval & Reformation Theology

Course Description: This course examines major theological developments from the medieval Church through the Protestant Reformation. Students study scholasticism, sacramental theology, reform movements, and Protestant doctrinal developments.

Course Contents: Medieval Christianity and theology; Monasticism and spirituality; Scholastic theology; Sacramental systems; Papal authority and ecclesiology; Precursors to the Reformation; Martin Luther and justification by faith; Calvin and Reformed theology; Anglican and Anabaptist traditions; Catholic Counter-Reformation; Reformation impact on the Church; Legacy of Reformation theology.

EDC 506 — Pentecostal & Charismatic Theology

Course Description: This course studies the historical development and theological foundations of Pentecostal and Charismatic movements. Emphasis is placed on Spirit baptism, gifts of the Spirit, healing, revival, worship, and contemporary charismatic theology.

Course Contents: Origins of Pentecostalism; Holiness roots and revivalism; Azusa Street and global expansion; Spirit baptism theology; Gifts and manifestations of the Spirit; Healing and deliverance ministry; Worship and Pentecostal spirituality; Charismatic renewal movements; Prosperity theology debates; Pentecostal ecclesiology; Contemporary charismatic movements; Critiques and theological evaluation.

EDC 507 — Revival History & Theology

Course Description: This course examines revival movements throughout Church history and the theological foundations of awakening, renewal, prayer, repentance, and spiritual transformation.

Course Contents: Theology of revival; Revival in biblical history; Early Church awakenings; Monastic and reform movements; The Moravian revival; The Great Awakenings; Wesleyan revival movements; The Welsh Revival; Azusa Street Revival; African revival movements; Prayer and revival spirituality; Revival and societal transformation.

EDC 508 — History of African Christianity

Course Description: This course surveys the historical development of Christianity in Africa from the early Church to contemporary African expressions of Christianity. Attention is given to missions, indigenous movements, colonial encounters, and African theology.

Course Contents: Christianity in North Africa; Early African Church Fathers; Christianity and Islam in Africa; Missionary expansion into sub-Saharan Africa; Colonialism and missions; African indigenous churches; African Pentecostalism; African revival movements; Contextual theology in Africa; Christianity and African culture; Contemporary African Christianity; Challenges facing the African Church.

EDC 509 — Theology of Mission in African & Global Context

Course Description: This course explores mission theology within African and global realities. Students study contextualization, globalization, indigenous leadership, social engagement, urban mission, and contemporary missiological challenges.

Course Contents: Biblical theology of mission; African perspectives on mission; Indigenous mission movements; Contextualization in mission; Urbanization and mission; Globalization and Christianity; Poverty, justice, and mission; Mission among unreached peoples; Cross-cultural engagement; Church planting movements; Mission and social transformation; Contemporary missiological issues.

EDC 510 — Financial Integrity & Stewardship in Ministry

Course Description: This course examines biblical stewardship, financial ethics, accountability, and responsible resource management within ministry and ecclesial leadership.

Course Contents: Biblical theology of stewardship; Money and ministry ethics; Budgeting and financial planning; Accountability systems; Fundraising ethics; Transparency and reporting; Generosity and giving; Resource management; Financial abuse prevention; Wealth, poverty, and ministry; Integrity in financial leadership; Sustainable stewardship practices.

EDC 511 — Philosophy & Theology of Education

Course Description: This course studies philosophical and theological foundations of Christian education and discipleship formation. Emphasis is placed on worldview formation, pedagogy, curriculum development, and theological training.

Course Contents: Philosophy of education; Theology of learning and formation; Biblical foundations of teaching; Worldview and education; Discipleship and pedagogy; Curriculum development; Teaching methods and communication; Educational psychology; Formation-centered education; Seminary and theological education; Teacher ethics and responsibility; Education and societal transformation.

EDC 512 — Theological Integration

Course Description: This course synthesizes major theological disciplines into a coherent and integrated Christian worldview. Students learn to connect biblical theology, systematic theology, ministry, mission, ethics, and spiritual formation into unified theological reflection.

Course Contents: Nature of theological integration; Biblical theology and systematic theology; Doctrine and spiritual formation; Theology and ministry practice; Theology and culture; Ethics and theological reflection; Integration of Old and New Testament theology; Theology and mission; Theological coherence and worldview; Interdisciplinary theological reflection; Contemporary theological challenges; Integration for ministry and scholarship.

SESSION 3

SEMESTER 6: EXEGETICAL & THEOLOGICAL DEPTH

Handling Scripture with Precision and Reverence

EDC 601 — Exegetical Principles

Course Description: This course introduces the principles and methods of biblical exegesis with emphasis on grammatical, historical, literary, and theological interpretation of Scripture. Students develop skills for careful textual analysis and responsible interpretation.

Course Contents: Nature and purpose of exegesis; Exegesis and hermeneutics; Historical-grammatical method; Literary analysis of biblical texts; Contextual interpretation; Lexical and word studies; Syntax and sentence analysis; Genre analysis in Scripture; Theological interpretation; Exegetical tools and resources; Common interpretive fallacies; Writing exegetical studies.

EDC 602 — Biblical Intertextuality

Course Description: This course studies the interconnectedness of Scripture through quotations, allusions, typology, thematic development, and canonical relationships between biblical texts.

Course Contents: Definition and theory of intertextuality; Canonical unity of Scripture; Old Testament in the New Testament; Typology and biblical patterns; Quotations and allusions; Promise and fulfillment motifs; Thematic developments across Scripture; Covenant interconnections; Messianic trajectories; Intertextuality in Pauline writings; Intertextuality in Revelation; Theological implications of intertextuality.

EDC 603 — Old & New Testament Theology

Course Description: This course surveys the major theological themes of both Testaments and their unity within redemptive history. Emphasis is placed on covenant, kingdom, salvation, worship, mission, and fulfillment in Christ.

Course Contents: Nature of biblical theology; Theology of the Old Testament; Theology of the New Testament; Covenant theology; Kingdom theology; Temple and presence theology; Priesthood and sacrifice; Salvation in both Testaments; Israel and the Church; Christ as fulfillment of Scripture; Eschatological hope in Scripture; Unity and diversity of biblical theology.

EDC 604 — Systematic Theology I (God, Christ, Spirit)

Course Description: This course examines systematic theology concerning the doctrines of God, Christ, and the Holy Spirit. Students study divine attributes, Trinitarian theology, Christology, and Pneumatology within biblical and historical frameworks.

Course Contents: Introduction to systematic theology; Doctrine of revelation; Doctrine of God; Divine attributes; The Trinity; Providence and sovereignty; Christology and incarnation; Humanity and divinity of Christ; The work of Christ; Pneumatology and the Holy Spirit; Spirit baptism and sanctification; Historical theological developments.

EDC 605 — Systematic Theology II (Salvation, Church, Last Things)

Course Description: This course studies the doctrines of salvation, the Church, and eschatology. Attention is given to redemption, justification, sanctification, ecclesiology, resurrection, judgment, and consummation.

Course Contents: Doctrine of salvation; Election and predestination; Justification and regeneration; Sanctification and perseverance; Union with Christ; Doctrine of the Church; Ordinances and worship; Spiritual gifts and ministry; Eschatology and the Kingdom; Resurrection and judgment; Millennium views; New creation and consummation.

EDC 606 — Poetic, Wisdom & Prophetic Literature (Advanced)

Course Description: This course provides advanced study of Hebrew poetry, wisdom writings, and prophetic literature. Emphasis is placed on literary structure, theological themes, prophetic symbolism, and interpretive methodologies.

Course Contents: Hebrew poetic structures; Parallelism and imagery; Wisdom theology; Suffering and lament literature; Royal and Messianic Psalms; Proverbs and covenant wisdom; Ecclesiastes and existential reflection; Prophetic genres and symbolism; Major prophetic themes; Apocalyptic dimensions in prophecy; Exilic and postexilic prophecy; Advanced interpretive methods.

EDC 607 — ANE Backgrounds & Second Temple Period

Course Description: This course examines Ancient Near Eastern backgrounds and the Second Temple Jewish context of Scripture. Students study culture, religion, politics, literature, and historical developments relevant to biblical interpretation.

Course Contents: Introduction to Ancient Near Eastern studies; Mesopotamian and Egyptian civilizations; Covenant treaties and legal traditions; Ancient religious systems; Kingship and temple ideology; Intertestamental history; Persian, Greek, and Roman influence; Jewish sects and movements; Second Temple literature; Dead Sea Scrolls; Messianic expectations in Judaism; Relevance for biblical interpretation.

EDC 608 — Biblical Worldview & Theology of Culture

Course Description: This course explores biblical worldview formation and theological engagement with culture, society, philosophy, politics, and contemporary ideologies.

Course Contents: Nature of worldview; Biblical worldview foundations; Creation, fall, redemption, consummation; Theology of culture; Christianity and society; Faith and politics; Media, technology, and culture; Secularism and postmodernism; Ethics and public theology; The Church and cultural engagement; Kingdom theology and society; Christian witness in contemporary culture.

EDC 609 — OT/NT Book Exegesis (Jonah, Gospels, Jude)

Course Description: This course provides detailed exegetical study of selected Old and New Testament books with emphasis on textual analysis, theology, literary structure, and ministry application.

Course Contents: Exegesis of Jonah; Prophetic narrative analysis; Mercy and mission in Jonah; Exegesis of selected Gospel passages; Kingdom theology in the Gospels; Christological interpretation; Exegesis of Jude; False teaching and apostasy; Literary and rhetorical analysis; Theological synthesis of selected books; Exegetical writing and presentation; Application of exegesis in ministry.

SESSION 4

SEMESTER 7: ADVANCED BIBLICAL LANGUAGES, HERMENEUTICS & APOLOGETICS

Textual Mastery and Defense of the Faith

EDC 701 — Advanced Hermeneutics

Course Description: This course advances the study of biblical interpretation through engagement with historical, literary, theological, canonical, and contemporary hermeneutical methods. Students develop deeper interpretive competence for scholarly and ministerial application.

Course Contents: Advanced theories of interpretation; Historical development of hermeneutics; Canonical interpretation; Theological hermeneutics; Narrative and literary criticism; Typology and symbolism; Intertextual interpretation; Christocentric hermeneutics; Contextual and cultural interpretation; Hermeneutics and theology; Contemporary hermeneutical debates; Advanced exegetical application.

EDC 702 — Greek & Hebrew Exegesis Practicum

Course Description: This course provides practical exegetical training using biblical Hebrew and Greek texts. Students apply grammatical, syntactical, lexical, and theological analysis to selected Old and New Testament passages.

Course Contents: Principles of original language exegesis; Hebrew grammatical analysis; Greek grammatical analysis; Lexical and semantic studies; Syntactical interpretation; Translation comparison methods; Use of critical apparatus; Exegesis of Old Testament texts; Exegesis of New Testament texts; Theological interpretation from original languages; Exegetical writing and presentation; Practical ministry application of exegesis.

EDC 703 — Advanced Old Testament Hebrew Grammar

Course Description: This course develops advanced competence in biblical Hebrew grammar, syntax, vocabulary, translation, and exegetical analysis of Old Testament texts.

Course Contents: Advanced Hebrew morphology; Hebrew syntax and sentence structure; Verb systems and stem analysis; Hebrew poetry and parallelism; Semantic and lexical studies; Translation techniques; Reading narrative texts; Reading poetic texts; Reading prophetic texts; Textual and grammatical analysis; Hebrew exegesis methods; Practical translation exercises.

EDC 704 — Advanced New Testament Greek Grammar

Course Description: This course advances the study of Koine Greek for New Testament interpretation. Emphasis is placed on grammar, syntax, translation, textual analysis, and exegetical application.

Course Contents: Advanced Greek morphology; Greek syntax and sentence analysis; Verb tenses and aspect theory; Participles and infinitives; Lexical semantics; Translation principles; Reading Pauline texts; Reading Gospel texts; Reading Johannine literature; Greek exegesis methods; Textual analysis in Greek; Practical translation exercises.

EDC 705 — Introduction to Aramaic

Course Description: This course introduces biblical Aramaic with emphasis on grammar, vocabulary, syntax, and interpretation of Aramaic portions of Scripture and related ancient texts.

Course Contents: Introduction to biblical Aramaic; Aramaic alphabet and pronunciation; Basic grammar and syntax; Vocabulary development; Reading Aramaic biblical texts; Aramaic in Daniel and Ezra; Comparative Semitic studies; Translation techniques; Historical development of Aramaic; Aramaic and Second Temple Judaism; Introduction to Aramaic exegesis; Practical translation exercises.

EDC 706 — Textual Criticism (OT & NT)

Course Description: This course studies the transmission, preservation, and reconstruction of biblical texts through textual criticism. Students examine manuscripts, textual variants, critical editions, and methods of evaluating textual evidence.

Course Contents: Introduction to textual criticism; Transmission of Old Testament texts; Transmission of New Testament texts; Major biblical manuscripts; Scribal practices and traditions; Textual variants and families; Principles of textual evaluation; Critical apparatus and editions; Septuagint and Masoretic Text; Dead Sea Scrolls and textual studies; Canon and textual preservation; Theological implications of textual criticism.

EDC 707 — Pauline Theology (Advanced)

Course Description: This course provides advanced theological study of Paul's writings with emphasis on justification, union with Christ, ecclesiology, mission, eschatology, ethics, and apostolic theology.

Course Contents: Life and historical context of Paul; Pauline theology and methodology; Justification by faith; Union with Christ; Theology of grace; Ecclesiology in Paul; The Spirit in Pauline theology; Ethics and sanctification; Mission and apostleship; Eschatology in Paul; Paul and the Law; Contemporary Pauline scholarship.

EDC 708 — Biblical Apologetics

Course Description: This course equips students to defend the Christian faith through biblical, philosophical, historical, and theological reasoning. Attention is given to major objections against Christianity and methods of apologetic engagement.

Course Contents: Foundations of apologetics; Biblical basis for defending the faith; Classical and presuppositional apologetics; Existence of God arguments; Reliability of Scripture; Historical evidence for the resurrection; Problem of evil and suffering; Science and Christianity; Comparative religious apologetics; Apologetics and evangelism; Engaging skepticism and atheism; Apologetics in contemporary culture.

EDC 709 — Theology of World Religions

Course Description: This course examines major world religions and theological systems from a Christian theological perspective. Students study beliefs, practices, historical development, and Christian engagement with religious pluralism.

Course Contents: Theology of religions; Religious pluralism and exclusivism; Judaism and Christianity; Islam and Christian engagement; Hinduism and Eastern spirituality; Buddhism and worldview analysis; African Traditional Religions; New Religious Movements; Secular spirituality and mysticism; Comparative theology; Evangelism among world religions; Christian witness in pluralistic societies.

EDC 710 — Engaging Secularism & Modern Ideologies

Course Description: This course studies modern intellectual, philosophical, cultural, and ideological movements from a biblical worldview perspective. Students examine secularism, relativism, materialism, postmodernism, and contemporary social ideologies.

Course Contents: Foundations of secularism; Enlightenment thought and modernity; Humanism and atheism; Relativism and postmodernism; Marxism and political ideologies; Consumerism and materialism; Gender and identity ideologies; Media and ideological formation; Biblical worldview engagement; Public theology and culture; Christian response to modern ideologies; Cultural discernment and witness.

EDC 711 — Faith, Reason & Science

Course Description: This course explores the relationship between Christian faith, rational inquiry, and scientific investigation. Students examine creation, philosophy of science, scientific theories, and theological responses to contemporary scientific issues.

Course Contents: Faith and rationality; Philosophy of science; Creation and cosmology; Evolution and creation debates; Science and biblical interpretation; Miracles and supernaturalism; Human origins and anthropology; Bioethics and medical ethics; Artificial intelligence and technology; Environmental stewardship; Christianity and scientific history; Theology and scientific engagement.

SESSION 4

SEMESTER 8: RESEARCH, SYNTHESIS & COMMISSIONING

Demonstrating Mastery and Readiness for Apostolic Assignment

EDC 801 — Logic & Critical Thinking

Course Description: This course develops logical reasoning, analytical thinking, and intellectual discernment for theological reflection, research, apologetics, and ministry leadership. Students examine principles of argumentation, fallacies, evidence evaluation, and coherent reasoning.

Course Contents: Introduction to logic and reasoning; Deductive and inductive reasoning; Structure of arguments; Critical thinking principles; Informal and formal fallacies; Evaluating evidence and claims; Analytical reading and interpretation; Logic in theological discourse; Philosophical reasoning; Argument construction and defense; Discernment and intellectual integrity; Critical engagement with ideas.

EDC 802 — Advanced Research & Academic Writing

Course Description: This course equips students with advanced academic research and scholarly writing skills for theological study and publication. Emphasis is placed on research methodology, critical analysis, citation standards, academic integrity, and thesis development.

Course Contents: Foundations of academic research; Research methodology in theology; Developing research questions; Literature review methods; Academic writing styles; Citation and referencing systems; Argumentation and thesis construction; Critical analysis and synthesis; Research ethics and integrity; Writing theological essays and papers; Editing and revision techniques; Preparation for thesis writing.

EDC 803 — Thesis

Course Description: This course requires students to conduct independent theological research under faculty supervision and produce a substantial scholarly thesis demonstrating academic competence, theological depth, analytical skill, and ministry relevance.

Course Contents: Selection of research topic; Proposal development; Research methodology application; Literature review and source analysis; Theological argument construction; Critical engagement with scholarship; Data collection and interpretation; Academic writing and formatting; Thesis supervision and revision; Oral defense preparation; Scholarly contribution and integration; Final thesis submission.

EDC 804 — Theology of Calling & Vocation

Course Description: This course examines the biblical theology of divine calling, vocation, purpose, and ministry assignment. Students study spiritual identity, calling narratives, discernment, faithfulness, and lifelong service within the mission of God.

Course Contents: Theology of calling in Scripture; General and specific calling; Vocational identity and purpose; Calling narratives in Scripture; Discernment of divine direction; Character and calling; Calling and suffering; Calling and spiritual formation; Ministry vocation and stewardship; Perseverance in assignment; Calling and community affirmation; Lifelong faithfulness in vocation.

EDC 805 — Apostolic Ministry & Missional Strategy

Course Description: This course studies apostolic ministry within biblical, theological, and missional frameworks. Emphasis is placed on pioneering ministry, church planting, leadership development, spiritual governance, and strategic mission expansion.

Course Contents: Biblical foundations of apostolic ministry; Apostleship in the New Testament; Apostolic leadership and governance; Church planting principles; Missionary strategy in Acts; Territorial and cross-cultural mission; Leadership reproduction and training; Apostolic teams and ministry structures; Spiritual authority and accountability; Apostolic preaching and doctrine; Missional strategy and contextualization; Contemporary apostolic movements.

EDC 806 — Spiritual Warfare & Kingdom Authority

Course Description: This course examines the biblical theology of spiritual warfare, authority in Christ, discernment, prayer, deliverance, and the believer's participation in the victory of Christ over spiritual powers.

Course Contents: Biblical worldview of spiritual conflict; Satan and demonic powers in Scripture; Authority of Christ over darkness; The believer's authority in Christ; Armor of God theology; Prayer and spiritual warfare; Deliverance ministry foundations; Discernment and spiritual opposition; Warfare in mission and ministry; Strongholds and spiritual deception; Victory through the cross and resurrection; Balance and caution in warfare ministry.

EDC 807 — Theology of Suffering, Persecution & Martyrdom

Course Description: This course studies suffering, persecution, endurance, and martyrdom within biblical theology and Church history. Students examine suffering as participation in Christ, refinement of faith, witness, and perseverance in ministry.

Course Contents: Theology of suffering in Scripture; Suffering in the Old Testament; The suffering of Christ; Apostolic suffering and persecution; Martyrdom in Church history; Perseverance and endurance; Trials and spiritual maturity; Suffering and mission; The persecuted Church globally; Hope and eschatological endurance; Comfort, lament, and faithfulness; Ministry in hostile environments.

EDC 808 — Life Rule for Ministers & Longevity

Course Description: This course examines sustainable spiritual formation and lifelong ministry health. Students study personal discipline, emotional health, family life, time management, rest, accountability, and perseverance for enduring ministry effectiveness.

Course Contents: Theology of endurance and longevity; Rule of life and spiritual habits; Personal devotion and discipline; Emotional and mental health; Family and ministry balance; Burnout prevention; Accountability and mentorship; Time management and stewardship; Rest, Sabbath, and renewal; Integrity and consistency; Finishing ministry well; Legacy and lifelong faithfulness.

EDC 809 — Succession, Legacy & Spiritual Fathering

Course Description: This course studies leadership succession, generational transfer, mentorship, spiritual fathering, institutional continuity, and legacy building within ministry contexts.

Course Contents: Biblical models of succession; Spiritual fatherhood and mentorship; Generational leadership transfer; Legacy in Scripture; Training future leaders; Institutional continuity and stability; Character transmission in mentorship; Leadership multiplication; Covenant relationships in ministry; Succession planning and preparation; Preserving doctrine and vision; Finishing well and enduring impact.

EDC 810 — Ministerial Assessment, Ordination & Commissioning

Course Description: This course serves as the culminating formation and evaluation process for ministry candidates. Students undergo assessment in doctrine, character, leadership, ministry competence, and readiness for ordination and commissioning.

Course Contents: Theology of ordination and commissioning; Biblical qualifications for ministry; Ministerial assessment processes; Doctrine and theological examination; Character and integrity evaluation; Leadership and ministry competency; Public preaching and teaching assessment; Spiritual maturity and accountability; Ecclesial recognition and affirmation; Covenant responsibilities in ministry; Commissioning and apostolic sending; Lifelong commitment to faithful service.

